Hockey returns to Baton Rouge

Tickets for winter exhibition games on sale Friday, Aug. 5

BATON ROUGE, La., Monday, August 1, 2022 – In hopes of bringing a hockey team to Baton Rouge, the Raising Cane's River Center will host three exhibition games later this year.

If there is a demand for the sport from the community, a new team will be launched in Baton Rouge for the 2023 season.

Tickets for all three games will go on sale Friday, August 5, 2022, at 10 a.m. Prices will range from $10-20.

Tickets can be purchased on Ticketmaster.com or at the Raising Cane's River Center arena box office on River Road.

East Baton Rouge Mayor-President Sharon Weston Broome stated, "The possibility of hockey making a comeback in Baton Rouge in 2023 is certainly exciting to me. I believe it's another opportunity to connect and build pride in our community. I look forward to all the success that we know it will bring to our community."

Mississippi Sea Wolves v. Carolina Thunderbirds will take place on Dec. 8, 2022, at 7 p.m. CST.

Mississippi Sea Wolves v. Port Huron Prowlers will take place on Dec. 15, 2022, at 7 p.m. CST, and Jan. 2, 2023, at 7 p.m. CST.

"We are excited to be here," Port Huron Prowlers Owner Barry Soskin said. "Baton Rouge is the perfect location for our hard-hitting, old fashioned and family friendly hockey at an affordable price."

Wayne Hodes, General Manager for the Raising Cane's River Center, stated "It is of paramount importance that we at the Raising Cane's River Center create many different program options for the Baton Rouge community, as well as the regional community. Professional hockey would be a wonderful addition to those program efforts. Hopefully the community comes out to support these games so we can move forward with having an exhibition franchise to call our own."
